Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem and for the Coming of the Messiah

(Inspired from Lyrics by Paul Wilbur)

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper who love You Father and your holy city. As You say in Your Word, "For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake, I will not hold My peace, until her righteousness shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch.

Oh, God, we pray for the peace of Jerusalem. We pray for the coming of the Prince of Peace – that You break down the walls and the barriers of hatred and of sin that separates brother from brother, and those who call upon Your name, that You would establish Your throne in this city – that You will come and take up Your place, the one that belongs to You alone – that You will establish Your righteousness and Your rule – that the Kingdom of God will cover the Earth, even as the waters cover the seas – and that the Name of the Holy One of Israel, Yeshua HaMashiach, Jesus the Messiah, will be a banner and a shade and a comfort to all peoples who call upon Your Name in holiness. Maranatha, speed the day, even so, Yeshua come, take up Your throne and bring peace to this city and to this world.
